Man Pleads No Contest to Burglarizing Home of Singer Miley Cyrus

A man charged with burglarizing the home of singer Miley Cyrus pleaded no contest today, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Brad Harmon said defendant Rusty Edward Sellner, 22, of Newbury Park pleaded to one count of first-degree residential burglary.

Sellner is expected to be sentenced to two years in state prison on April 1 in Department 120 of Los Angeles County Superior Court, Van Nuys Branch.

The defendant broke into the singer's Toluca Lake house on Dec. 16, 2014 and removed a large amount of her and her brother's personal property, the prosecutor said. Sellner was charged in case LA080080.

The Los Angeles Police Department's North Hollywood Division investigated the case.
